

Code of Conduct

royal van der leun

Message from the CEO

Doing things right is one of our most important values at Van der Leun. We work hard every day to create an environment and to provide projects and products that enhance the lives of people in our community, our country, and all over the world.

We are clear about what we mean when we talk about doing things right. Not only does it mean that we provide projects and products that are well made, fairly priced and of exceptional quality, but it also means that every step we take in making those products is taken with ethics and integrity in mind. We source material only from suppliers who have impeccable human rights records, ensure our supply chain is of high integrity and monitor our entire operation for compliance with our code of conduct.

Working at Van der Leun means making a commitment to uphold our company values and following the code of conduct outlined in this document. Thank you for upholding our values and helping us to be the best product supplier we can be.

Martin den Breejen

Chief Executive Officer

TABLE OF CONTENTS
Introduction	4
Ethical Principles and Core Values	4
Decision Making and the Code of Conduct	4
Reporting/Speaking Up	4
No Retaliation	4
Equal Opportunity	5
Harassment	5
Bullying	5
Conflicts of Interest	5
External Communication on Behalf of Van der Leun	5
Confidentiality	6
Privacy	6
Competition, Fair Dealings and Antitrust	6
Bribery and Facilitation Payments	6
Gifts and Entertainment	7
Political Contributions	7
Charitable Contributions	7
Record Keeping	7
Protection and Proper Use of Company Assets	8
Money Laundering	8
Insider Trading	8
Health and Safety	8
Environment	9
Information Technology	9
Internet Use	9
Use of Social Media	9
Corporate Social Responsibility	9
Code of Conduct Acknowledgement	10

Introduction

The code of conduct applies to all employees including managers and executives of Van der Leun. And we demand the same code from our contractors and suppliers that they act according our code of conduct.

Ethical Principles and Core Values

Our company's core beliefs and values are:

- Honesty
- Integrity
- Trustworthiness
- Respect for others
- Responsibility
- Accountability
- Sustainability
- Obedience to the law
- Empathy
- Teamwork
- Commitment to the code

Decision Making and the Code of Conduct

When making a decision, ask yourself the following:

- Is it legal?
- Does it comply with the code?
- Does it reflect our company values and ethics?
- Does it respect the rights of others?
- If you are sure the answer is yes continue otherwise ask.

Reporting/Speaking Up

At Van der Leun all employees are free to ask questions and raise issues without fear of retaliation and van der Leun is committed to treating reports seriously and investigating them thoroughly.

Employees must report suspected unethical, illegal or suspicious behavior immediately. The company does not tolerate retaliation against anyone who makes a good faith report of suspected misconduct or otherwise assists with an investigation or audit.

To report a concern, the employee can report it on one of the following ways:

- Talk to your manager
- Contact Human Resources at h.heemskerk@royalvanderleun.com
- Contact the CEO at +31 (0)6-38820300
- Make a confidential and/or anonymous report and send it by mail to H. Heemskerk (HR Advisor), Trapezium 170, 3364 DL Sliedrecht..

No Retaliation

Employees who report a concern in good faith cannot be subjected to any adverse employment action including:

- Unfair dismissal, demotion or suspension
- Unfair denial of a promotion, transfer or other employment benefit
- Bullying and harassment, either in person or online
- Exclusionary behavior
- Any other behavior that singles out the person unfairly

Equal Opportunity

Van der Leun will not tolerate discrimination based on race, color, religion, gender, age, national origin, sexual orientation, marital status, disability or any other protected class.

Harassment

Treat all fellow employees, customers, business partners and other stakeholders with dignity and respect at all times.

Any type of harassment, including physical, sexual, verbal or other, is prohibited and can result in disciplinary action up to, and including, termination of the contract.

Harassment can include actions, language, written words or objects that create an intimidating or hostile work environment, such as:

- Yelling at or humiliating someone
- Physical violence or intimidation
- Unwanted sexual advances, invitations or comments
- Visual displays such as derogatory or sexually-oriented pictures or gestures
- Physical conduct including assault or unwanted touching
- Threats or demands to submit to sexual requests as a condition of employment or to avoid negative consequences

Bullying

We are committed to ensuring that our employees, our contractors and our customers work in a safe and respectful environment that is free of bullying. Bullying can include:

- Spreading malicious rumor or gossip
- Excluding or isolating someone socially
- Establishing impossible deliverables
- Withholding necessary information or purposefully giving the wrong information
- Intimidating someone
- Impeding someone's work
- Unfairly denying training, leave or promotion
- Constantly changing work guidelines
- Sending offensive jokes or emails
- Criticizing or belittling someone constantly
- Tampering with a person's personal belongings or work equipment

Conflicts of Interest

A conflict of interest can occur when an employee's personal activities, investments or associations compromises their judgment or ability to act in Van der Leun's best interests. Employees should avoid the types of situations that can give rise to conflicts of interest.

It's important for employees to disclose any relationships, associations or activities that could create actual, potential, or even perceived, conflict of interest to their manager or the Human Resources Department.

External Communication on Behalf of Van der Leun

Only the CEO or someone appointed by the CEO represents the company to legal authorities

Only the CEO, the Sales and Marketing & Communications department are authorized to represent Van der Leun to the media. Employees should refer all requests for information or interviews to the Marketing & Communications Department represented by Ms. Mirjam Van der Vlies on behalf of the CEO.

Confidentiality

Van der Leun and its employees maintain the confidentiality of all proprietary information. Proprietary information includes all non-public information that might be harmful to Van der Leun and its customers and business partners if disclosed.

Confidential information can include:

- Customer lists
- Supplier lists
- Pricing information
- Terms of contracts
- Company policies and procedures
- Financial statements
- Marketing plans and strategies
- Trade secrets
- Any other information that could damage Van der Leun or its customers or suppliers if it was disclosed

Privacy

Van der Leun complies with the requirements of the country's and international privacy laws. All employees sign an agreement that contains provisions for information confidentiality and non-disclosure.

Van der Leun and its employees do not disclose any private, personal information of:

- Employees
- Customers
- Suppliers
- Competitors
- Third parties

Employees store all personal information securely, mark it as confidential and store it only for as long as it is needed for the purpose for which it was collected.

When providing personal information, employees limit access to only those with a clear business need for the information.

Employees are required to report any breaches of privacy, including the loss, theft of or unauthorized access to personal information, to the Privacy Officer, Michel de Raad (m.de.raad@royalvanderleun.com).

Competition, Fair Dealings and Antitrust

While Van der Leun competes for new business, relationships with business partners are built upon trust and mutual benefits and compliant with competition/antitrust laws.

Employees are required to:

- Communicate Van der Leun's products and services in a manner that is fair and accurate, and that discloses all relevant information
- Familiarize themselves with Van der Leun's fair competition policies and remain aware of the consequences of any violation of policies or laws governing fair competition
- Consult the Van der Leun's legal advisers before engaging in any new practice that may affect fair competition
- Refrain from price fixing, bid rigging, and any other anti-competitive activities
- Use only publicly available information to understand business, customers, competitors, business partners, technology trends, and regulatory proposals and developments
- Advise their manager immediately of possible violations of fair competition practices

Bribery and Facilitation Payments

Van der Leun will not attempt to influence the judgement or behavior of a person in a position of trust by paying a bribe or kickback. This applies to persons in government and in private business.

Van der Leun does not permit facilitation payments to government officials or private business in order to secure or speed up routine actions.

Employees are to:

- Select third parties carefully and monitor them continuously to ensure they comply with the company's anti-bribery policies
- Keep accurate books and records at all times and monitor that funds are not being used for bribery or facilitation payments
- Refuse any offer or request for an unlawful payment and report the incident to the ethics and compliance officer

Gifts and Entertainment

While gifts and entertainment among business associates can be appropriate ways to strengthen ties and build goodwill, they also have the potential to create the perception that business decisions are influenced by them. Van der Leun is committed to winning business only on the merits of its products, services and people and complies with all legal requirements for giving and receiving gifts and entertainment.

Employees are to:

- Use sound judgment and comply with the law, regarding gifts and other benefits
- Never allow gifts, entertainment or other personal benefits to influence decisions or undermine the integrity of business relationships
- Never accept gifts or entertainment that are illegal, immoral or would reflect negatively on the company
- Never accept cash, cash equivalents, stocks or other securities

Employees may accept occasional unsolicited personal gifts of nominal value such as promotional items and may provide the same to customers and business partners.

When in doubt, employees should check with the ethics and compliance officer before giving or receiving anything of value.

Political Contributions

Van der Leun does not make political contributions.

Employees are free to support any political party or entity on a personal level. However this must be kept separate from Van der Leun business.

Charitable Contributions

Van der Leun may make charitable contributions to causes and organizations that are not politically affiliated. Employees should check with the CEO before making any charitable contributions on behalf of the company.

Record Keeping

All documents, databases, voice messages, mobile device messages, computer documents, files and photos are records.

Employees are required to:

- maintain these records and protect their integrity for as long as required
- maintain official record keeping systems to retain and file records required for business, legal, financial, research or archival purposes
- dispose of your records according to the company's records retention and disposition schedule and/or according to law (e.g. General Data Protection Regulation-GDPR).

Employees should never destroy documents in response to, or in anticipation of, an investigation or audit.

Protection and Proper Use of Company Assets

Van der Leun requires all employees to protect its assets. All assets should be used for legitimate purposes, efficiently, and for company business only.

Assets include facilities, equipment, computers and information systems, telephones, employee time, confidential and proprietary information, corporate opportunities and company funds.

Suspected incidents of fraud, theft, negligence, and waste should be reported to the manager or CEO.

Money Laundering

Van der Leun complies with anti-money laundering laws. Money laundering is the process of concealing illicit funds by moving them through legitimate businesses to hide their criminal origin.

Employees must never knowingly facilitate money laundering or terrorist financing, and must take steps to prevent inadvertent use of the company's business activities for these purposes. Employees are required to immediately report any unusual or suspicious activities or transactions such as:

- attempted payments in cash or from an unusual financing source
- arrangements that involve the transfer of funds to or from countries or entities not related to the transaction or customer
- unusually complex deals that don't reflect a real business purpose
- attempts to evade record-keeping or reporting requirements

Insider Trading

Employees may learn information about Van der Leun, associates, clients, business partners or other companies that is not publicly available. It is illegal for any individual to use information obtained in this way for personal gain or to share it with others.

Employees are prohibited from:

- Buying or selling securities based on non-publicly available knowledge gained in the course of business
- Providing information or tips, or encourage another person to buy or sell securities based on inside information

Employees are required to report suspected insider trading immediately to their manager, compliance officer or CEO.

Health and Safety

Van der Leun conducts business in accordance with applicable health and safety requirements and strives for continuous improvement in its health and safety policies and procedures.

All employees are expected to perform their work in compliance with applicable health and safety laws, regulations, policies and procedures and apply safe work practices at all times in all locations.

Applicable safety and health requirements must be communicated to visitors, customers or contractors at any company location.

Employees are required to immediately report workplace injuries, illnesses or unsafe conditions, including "near-misses."

Environment

Van der Leun is committed to operating in an environmentally responsible manner, from the provision of products and services, to the operation of its offices and facilities, selection of suppliers and other business activities.

Van der Leun complies with all applicable environmental laws and regulations as well as self-directed commitments to sustainable practices and environmental protection.

Self-directed commitments are:

- Doing no business with potential Japanese customers because of the whaling.
- Ban as many plastic office supplies as possible.
- Constantly strive to become an energy neutral company

Information Technology

Van der Leun expects its employees to help it safeguard all computer equipment and data against intentional malicious acts by individuals inside or outside the company. Cyber-security training is provided to all employees to ensure compliance with computer security policies.

Van der Leun safeguards against inappropriate access by individuals or groups untrained in correct company policies or procedures

Van der Leun does not use software for which it does not have a license.

Internet Use

Van der Leun understands that occasional personal use of the internet during work hours is a reasonable request and allows this, within reason. Employees can ask for clarification from their managers if in doubt.

However, Van der Leun does not allow internet use to support a personal business, political venture, or embarrass the company and its customers.

Use of Social Media

Van der Leun respects the right of employees to use social media for personal and professional purposes.

Employees are responsible for complying with Van der Leun policies and procedures when communicating on social media. Employees are accountable for any information they publish online.

Employees are required to:

- Reveal their relationship with the company when commenting online on issues related to the company
- Respect the privacy of other employees and refrain from publishing photos of them without their consent
- Ensure any information they post related to the company is accurate
- Comply with the rules of the social media sites they use

Employees must not:

- "Pretext", or pretend to be someone they are not online
- Speak on behalf of Van der Leun if they are not expressly authorized to do so
- Share confidential information about Van der Leun, its clients, stakeholders or suppliers
- Post comments or pictures that could harm the company's brand, reputation or commercial interests

Corporate Social Responsibility

The company understands that corporate social responsibility extends to our entire supply chain. This encompasses not only the products and services supplied but also the human rights, ethics and social practices of our company and its suppliers.

One goal of the corporate social responsibility procurement program is to build partnerships with like-minded organizations by actively seeking out business partners who are the most environmentally and workforce friendly.

Forced Labor: The company and its suppliers shall employ all employees under their own free will with no one being subjected to bonded or forced labor. This policy applies to not only the supplier's business operations but also those of their supplier network with which the company conducts its business.

Child Labor: The company and its suppliers shall not employ any people under the minimum legal working age of the country in which they work.

Responsible Environmental Impact: The company and its suppliers shall produce measurable environmental impact reports and conduct ongoing efforts to reduce environmental pollution while increasing sustainability.

The company encourages and supports involvement in the community that has supported it. This includes supporting local business and talent by, for example, sourcing local products and services, where appropriate, and showcasing the work of local artists in the company's public spaces.

Charitable involvement is important to the company. Cultural events are important to the company and will be sponsored if there are enough funds available.

Code of Conduct Acknowledgement

- You have read the entire code of conduct and understand your responsibilities related to it
- You have had the opportunity to ask questions to clarify any unclear aspects of the code
- You agree to abide by its principles
- You agree to report to the company any violations of the code
- You agree to cooperate in any investigations of violations of the code